Dear Students and Parents

We have reached the end of our first quarter of 2018 and classes have been progressing well.

Our Black Belt Club has grown significantly and I am proud to have so many students who have committed to achieving this rank. We have more students who will be awarded their Black Belts at the Pacific Coast Tournament on April 14.

Kindly take note of the dates for important events for the remainder of the year.

Adults are invited to try a free trial class. Our adult classes run from Monday to Thursday 7-8pm. It is never too late to learn Kuk Sool Won.

Testing Run

It was great to see the support from family and friends at the Testing Run and also wonderful to see siblings from the same family successfully complete the requirements. There was even a student who participated in the run in order to gain experience before the actual test which is a great attitude to witness.

Master Saidi's Message

Respect and etiquette are central themes in martial arts. I do not simply train students to fight but I train them to become true martial artists who are disciplined and respectful wherever they may find themselves.

Anyone can learn to fight on the street but as martial artists we should exemplify the characteristics that show balance in our mental and physical attributes and allow us to exhibit self-control and self-discipline.

I hope that you all will enjoy your Spring break.

For those of you who will be travelling I wish you safe and pleasant journeys.

Sincerely

Master Saidi
